

DECLARES EGYPT READY TO REBEL

London Paper's Statements
Indicate Roosevelt's Real Danger In Cairo.

LONDON, April 1.—The loudest cry of alarm yet sounded regarding the status of British rule in Egypt was voiced by the London Express today in an article pleading for more rigid repressive measures in Egypt.

If the Express' statement of conditions in Egypt is true, the public is agreed that Colonel Roosevelt was really in personal danger when he dared denounce the Nationalists in Cairo, their stronghold.

"It is no secret that sedition is rampant among the native officers of the Egyptian army," the Express says. "Secret societies are poisoning the people against the British and are planning by means of terrorist methods to sweep the English from the country."

"Selected members from these societies have gone to Italy and to Switzerland to study explosives and the manufacture of bombs. The result of their study can be but one thing, a reign of assassination in Egypt."

"Investigation proves that the Egyptian conspirators are working hand in hand with the conspirators of India." Now that Mr. Roosevelt has quit Egypt, it is feared the Nationalists will renew their activities with increased vigor. The Express warns the public that a startling blow may fall at any time.

VETERAN WILL REST IN SOLDIER'S GRAVE

Funeral of John A. Casterlin to Be Held From Late Residence.

Arrangements were completed today for the funeral of John A. Casterlin, a veteran of the civil war, and formerly division superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, who died yesterday afternoon at his residence, 1332 Harvard street northwest, after a brief illness.

Services will be held at the house tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence. The Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Greene, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Arlington Cemetery.

Mr. Casterlin was born at Varick, Seneca county, N. Y., in 1843. At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted with the 148th New York Volunteers, and served until disabled by the explosion of a shell at the battle of Cold Harbor.

After the war he entered the service of the Western Union Telegraph Company. He was soon promoted to division superintendent, and at various times was stationed at Ithaca, Rochester, Syracuse, and Albany, in connection with the New York Central.

Mr. Casterlin came to Washington four years ago upon his retirement from business. He is survived by his wife, and two daughters, Mrs. Charles I. Corby, of this city, and Mrs. M. L. Wirt, of New York. A brother, Dexter A. Casterlin, of Charlotte, Mich., and a sister, Mrs. James L. McCall, of Geneva, N. Y., also survive him.

Saks
Clothes
the Best

Why?

The average cutter and tailor could not qualify for membership on our staff of artists. We pick the men who make for us with the same critical care we select the woollens we put into their hands. They must be men of resourceful ideas, and skilled in the tailoring art. The less they know of ready-made clothes-making the better equipped they are for service with us. The distinctive styles and the thoroughness of every detail in the Saks garments proclaim their mastership of their art.

That's your advantage in the wearing of Saks clothes. Not only do they present the best of the looms, but the best of craftsmanship. There's no question of your being correctly dressed; no chance of your not being accurately fitted; no risk of weakness in either fabric or tailoring.
